

NO COST PITC Infant Toddler Training Available!

The PITC Regional Support Network in partnership with The Institute for Families and Nannies (TIFFAN) is offering a FREE Infant Toddler Care training series on the PITC Philosophy. The ten monthly trainings offer an opportunity to explore and learn on diverse topics related to the importance of caring for infants and toddlers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Family, Friend, Neighbor, and Nannies caring for children birth to 36 months.

TRAINING DATES:

- March 16, 2024: Understanding Infant-Toddler Development
- April 13, 2024: Early Brain Development and Responsive Relationships
- May 18, 2024: Supporting Social-Emotional Development
- June 15, 2024: Developmentally Appropriate Guidance and Discipline
- August 2024 (TBD): Supporting Cognitive Development
- September 2024 (TBD): Supporting Language Development
- October 2024 (TBD): Supporting Perceptual and Motor Development
- November 2024 (TBD): Creating Partnerships with Parents
- December 2024 (TBD): Providing Culturally Responsive Care

NO COST TRAINING FOR
NANNIES, FAMILY,
FRIEND,
NEIGHBOR
CAREGIVERS
LIVING OR WORKING IN MOUNTAIN VIEW!

Sign Up Here!

Date: Saturdays (see dates above)
Time 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: Online via Zoom
Language: English or Spanish Classes

All services are delivered by a PITC certified Infant-Toddler Specialist. Please contact info@tiffan.org for more information. For Infant toddler resources go to pitc.org

Training provided by the PITC Regional Support Network is funded by the California Department of Social Services.